If elected, I offer you years of experience both as an occasional teacher (since 2004) and as a former executive member of the ETFO Toronto OT local.

I am hardworking and honest.

I am a collaborative team member.

My priorities are your priorities. To that end, I remain dedicated to listening to the needs of all our members and ensuring that those needs are guiding the work we do as representatives.

I have the experience, skills and commitment for advocacy.

I champion the vital role of occasional teachers in education.

I know first-hand the issues that matter most:

- Living Wage
- Workplace Safety and Respect
- Equitable Hiring Practices
- Access to Work
- Health Benefits
- Professional Learning
