

May/June 2022 Virtual Workshops

The Caring - And Occasional - Adult in the Room

Presenter: D. Tyler Robinson

Date: May 4th

Time: 5:00PM – 7:00PM

Location: Online via Zoom

About: Whether entering the learning space for a single period, or the entire semester, what is the occasional teacher's responsibility in disrupting racism/oppression within a school system, and broader society, that is rife with daily examples and experiences doing harm to young people? This workshop will thoughtfully dive into the discomfort of conversations about race/racism and speak honestly and collaboratively in an effort to acknowledge the difficult and unique circumstances of the occasional educator's experience and role in moving the needle of critical consciousness, forward.

Bio: D. Tyler Robinson (he/him) is a father, community member, educator, and curriculum writers with the TDSB secondary panel.

Tyler gravitates towards students who are underserved by systemic education -that is: all students (to varying degrees). He is interested in ways that the classroom can be used as a space for true, cross-cultural and intersectional solidarity, and as a space for healing, liberation, and community building.

To register, please email pl@ica.net by 4:00PM on April 26th

(Include your name and TDSB employee number in your registration request)

Subject Line: Caring

Notification of your registration status and any additional details about the workshop will be emailed to all applicants.

What's the Difference?: Building on Autism Strengths, Skills and Talents in Your Classrooms

Presenter: Amanda Yuill

Date: May 11th

Time: 5:00PM – 7:00PM

Location: Online via Zoom

About: This workshop focuses on how to integrate teaching autistic students into the teaching practice of the whole class. Whether teaching as an LTO or a daily OT, numerous techniques will be shared in order to support the needs of autistic students while improving the learning experience for all.

To register, please email pl@ica.net by 4:00PM on May 4th

(Include your name and TDSB employee number in your registration request)

Subject Line: Autism

Notification of your registration status and any additional details about the workshop will be emailed to all applicants.

May/June 2022 Virtual Workshops

Stolen People on Stolen Land Part 1

Presenters: Jamea Zuberi, Bonita Uzoruo and Michelle Davis

Date: May 25th

Time: 5:00 - 6:30 PM

Location: Online via Zoom

About: The first workshop will act as a beginning conversation into what it means to be stolen people on stolen land. This workshop will explore topics such as Reconciliation (what does it look like?), Reparations, Reinforcement of Indigenous and Black Peoples working together, Intersectionality, Land Sovereignty, Responsibilities to Land and unpacking the truth. Instructors will explore stories of how Indigenous and Black Peoples have survived together and supported one another. The intention of this workshop is to provide a space for educators to explore these topics and take this learning with them and put it into their communities.

****This workshop be available to all TDSB employees including OTs, ETT members, admin, etc. However, the $25.00 meal reimbursement and $75.00 childcare expense be made available to TDSB elementary OTs only.

To register, please email pl@ica.net by 4:00PM on May 19th

(Include your name and TDSB employee number in your registration request)

Subject Line: Stolen

Notification of your registration status and any additional details about the workshop will be emailed to all applicants.

Status of Women Speaker: Joy Henderson, author, storyteller, advocate, and Twitter social justice advocate.

Date: June 2nd

Time: 6:00 – 8:00PM

Location: Online via Zoom

About: Joy Henderson is a 2 Spirited Afro-Lakota Child and Youth Care Practitioner, who's practice works from a lens of centering Black and Indigenous young people. Her passion is exploring Afro-Indigeneity and building connections and relationships between Black and Indigenous communities. She is also a mother to three teenagers and pursuing a second career as a chauffeur to said teenagers.

To register, please email pl@ica.net by 4:00PM on May 27th

(Include your name and TDSB employee number in your registration request)

Subject Line: Joy

Notification of your registration status and any additional details about the workshop will be emailed to all applicants.

May/June 2022 Virtual Workshops

Managing Violent Situations

Presenter: Amanda Yuill

Date: June 8th

Time: 5:00 – 6:00PM

Location: Online via Zoom

About: How do you keep yourself and your students safe during violent incidents in the classroom? What are the appropriate procedures? What does research say about violent situations in schools in Canada? These questions and more will be answered, with practical steps and guidelines to follow to maintain a safe classroom.

To register, please email pl@ica.net by 4:00PM on June 1st

(Include your name and TDSB employee number in your registration request)

Subject Line: Managing

Notification of your registration status and any additional details about the workshop will be emailed to all applicants.

Please Note:

Event Meal Expense Forms and Dependent Care Forms will be provided to all ETFO Toronto Occasional Teacher members at the conclusion of each event.

Event Meal Expense is up to $25.

Dependent Care Reimbursements is up to $75.