Stolen People On Stolen Land Part 2

Online Zoom Workshop Hosted by
ETFO - Toronto OT Local's Racialized Members
Committee

In part 2 of this 3 part series, participants will further explore the complexities of what it means to be Stolen People On Stolen Land.

Workshop facilitators will share stories and experiences that historic Black communities faced finding place and belonging in the stolen lands of Ontario, as well as implications for the contemporary realities of Black Canadians.

Making connections to Treaties and Government policies, discussions will also explore how historic and ongoing theft of Indigenous lands attempts to erase Indigenous rights and sovereignty.

WHY POVERTY? WORKSHOP

This workshop will explore attitudes towards and perceptions of poverty in a broader context. It will examine the impact of poverty in the classroom and school community, look at the many ways issues related to poverty can inform and impact teaching practice, and explore the concept of becoming active in addressing poverty in the community.

The workshop will include individual and group-shared discussions about issues of poverty, case studies related to the impact of poverty in classrooms and school communities, and provide resources to support teaching practice as well as school and community understanding.
