

Why elect Efstathia Sotiropoulos, HBA, M.Ed, OCT with the big fat Greek name as 2023/2024 Executive Member of the ETFO – Toronto Occasional Teachers' Local? Why not trust someone who earned herself an international record deal, published and gained media attention for her own illustrated children's book, operated her own academic-based childcare business for 6 years all while completing her Master's degree in education and running her own charity, to negotiate and work for you?

Key Qualities:

Honest Ambitious Bold Inclusive Approachable Determined

Ethical Committed

A peek into my vision for our local includes:

Improved pay for daily OTs

Improved health benefits for daily OTs with reduced monthly premium

Healthy and safe work environment for all OTs

Paid Professional Development days for all OTs and improved PD opportunities to connect in a professionally meaningful and effective way

Proper training and ongoing support including for virtual learning positions

A strengthened OT community through interactive socials and increased communication Inclusiveness of and respect for all members

I am passionate about equity and inclusiveness. To me, every concern is relevant. As your representative, I will ensure your voice and concerns will be heard and respected. I have regularly attended and engaged at our union's meetings throughout my experience as OT for TDSB. I have a positive and driven personality and a keen interest in psychology, people and workplace justice.

Thank you for your vote and for asking your colleagues and friends to vote with you, Efstathia Sotiropoulos

2021 & 2022/2023 Social Committee Chair Women's Committee member

Motivated, every-voice-matters minded educator with strong social justice initiative from an immigrant household - lunderstand struggle, ladvocate for justice.